

ROTARY CLUB OF SANTA FE

Red Badge Conversion Checklist

For a new member to earn his or her Blue Badge, and thereby retire his or her Red Badge, the new member must accomplish the following:

Task Description	Completion
1. Complete the club's new member orientation course, prior to induction into the club.	Course Meeting Date: __/__/__;
2. Serve as meeting Greeter, or assist the regular Greeter, at six regular club meetings, to become known to all the other members, and to know as many of those members as possible.	Meeting Dates: __/__; __/__; __/__; __/__; __/__; __/__;
3. Attend at least one regular meeting of the club's Board of Directors.	Board Meeting Date: __/__/__;
4. Serve on two or more committees of the club.	Committees:
5. Participate actively in the implementation of at least one club project, or club sponsored event. (For example, Artist of the Year Dinner, Camp RYLA, AIDS Walk, an international matching grant project, Plaza Pancake Breakfast, etc.)	Activity: Date: __/__/__;
6. Present a five minute "new member talk" about yourself to the club at a regular meeting of the club.	Date: __/__/__;
7. "Make Up" a club meeting at either Rotary Club of Santa Fe del Sur, or Rotary Club of Santa Fe Centro	Club: _____ Date: __/__/__

Member's Certification of Completion:

Member's Name: _____

Member's Signature: _____

Date: ___/___/___

Sponsor's Name: _____

Membership Development Committee Acceptance:

Signature: _____

Date: ___/___/___

Secretary Notified on Date: ___/___/___

P.O. BOX 2465 – SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO – 87504-2465